

Mariners Volleyball Club Travel Policy

Travel Arrangements:

1. Transportation Responsibility:

- Parents and/or guardians of each individual athlete are solely responsible for coordinating and ensuring transportation to and from all Mariners Volleyball Club functions. It is imperative that the designated person transporting the minor player is an age of majority (19 years old), adheres to all safety and legal requirements, including, but not limited to, possession of a valid driver's license, adequate automobile liability insurance, a vehicle in safe working order, and compliance with applicable provincial laws. Athletes are not permitted to drive themselves to Playdays or Tournaments outside of Nanaimo.

2. Overnight Stays:

- Parents and/or guardians are required to make arrangements for overnight stays for their athletes and are responsible for them while at the booked accommodations.
- Mariners Volleyball Club will endeavor to secure a block of rooms for each event outside of Vancouver Island, and pertinent information will be communicated to parents in a timely manner.
- While athletes are not obligated to stay in the same hotel as the team, they are responsible for timely arrival and departure from events as assigned by the coach.

3. Weather Conditions:

- Mariners Volleyball Club acknowledges the varying comfort levels of parents and guardians regarding traveling in different weather conditions. It is the responsibility of each parent and/or guardian to assess and ensure the safety of their athlete's transportation under prevailing weather conditions.

Expense Responsibilities:

Athlete Expenses:

- Parents and/or guardians are financially responsible for all expenses associated with the athlete's travel to and from Mariners Volleyball Club functions and events.
- These expenses may encompass travel, accommodation, food, and any additional costs incurred during the course of the event.

Mariners Volleyball Club Travel Policy

Coach Costs:

- Coach costs have been accurately calculated and are incorporated into the overall team fees for the club season.
- In the event that individual athletes do not attend a scheduled event, they are still obligated to pay the entire club fees. These fees cover coach costs for all events and are non-refundable.

By adhering to this travel policy, Mariners Volleyball Club aims to maintain a consistent and transparent approach to team logistics while ensuring the safety, well-being, and financial commitment of each athlete and their families. Your cooperation in following these guidelines is crucial for the seamless functioning of the club and the success of our athletes.